SIXTH FORM DRESS CODE

The overall effect of Sixth Form clothing should be one of smartness and appropriate to a conventional business context.

Safeguarding

- A Sixth Form Lanyard MUST be worn around the neck and visible.

Student clothing may include

- Tailored smart trousers
- Smart skirts or dresses no more than 3 inches above the knee
- Suits or blazers with shirt and tie
- Blouses; sleeved or short sleeves are permitted
- Fitted plain t-shirts
- Smart jumpers, quarter-zips and cardigans
- If tights are worn these must be black or flesh tone only
- Smart shoes
- Own coat and bag
- PE Kit includes the school PE polo shirt with logo which can be bought from Wearabouts

Students may dye their hair, can wear simple make-up and there is no limit on piercings

Unsuitable clothing includes but is not limited to

- Leggings / jeggings / jeans (denim clothing) / tracksuits
- Stretchy short skirts
- Vests, polo-shirts, strappy or low-cut tops
- Sports related jumpers or hooded tops
- Trainers, sandals, Uggs or Crocs
- Clothing that exposes underwear or midriff

Please note;

1. When representing the school (for example on a trip or at an open event) please ensure you wear suits and more formal uniform.
2. Students will be sent home if the sixth form dress code is not adhered to and the decision on whether clothing is suitable rests with the Sixth Form Pastoral Team.